Queen of Questions

Your job is to write four "thick" questions....questions that begin with the words "Why," "How," or "What if." Think of questions that you have about a character, the story, a word used, or even a question you would like to ask the author.

question:

I wonder how tired the dancers are?

question:

I wonder how long Grandma and Uncle George jigged for?

question:

I wonder if everyone loved the maple sugar?

question:

How much maple sugar did the children get?
