

Name: Sarah B.

What? - So What?

What? Facts from the text	So What? What are you thinking?
First Nations named corn, beans, and squash the "Three Sisters" because they planted them together.	Holey cinnamon sticks! I never knew that corn, beans, and squash was called the "Three sisters".
The beans that the First Nations planted grew up the corn stalks and the squash leaves stopped many weeds from growing.	I never knew that squash leaves stopped weed from growing. Maybe I'll try that at home!