

First Nation Culture

Did You Know?

Approximately 40
of these wood's
have been discovered along
the Fraser River,
on Vancouver Island
and British Columbia.

Posts
and
Totem Poles

Bush

The First Nation people used them. They were made of wood and placed in the middle of the village to mark the boundaries of the village.

Did You Know?

During winter when the ground was frozen the people would use the bundles to walk
the snow away from the village.

